Appointees of Governor Alcoro-Proclamation of the Mayor,

A Letter from the Brother of Ex-Mayor Sturges,

From the Meridian Gazette of the 18th.]

QUIET RESTORED.

Everything was perfectly quiet and orderly yesterday. Rumors were current that bands of negroes were organizing near the city, but on examination we found the report to be wholly unfounded. The stores were all open as usual, and the negroes returned to their drays and wagons. The Sheriff continues a large posse every night to prevent the perpetration of any wrong or revenging of personal spite or private gradge. The sexion placed the sod on the last of the colored victims of Monday's tragedy yesterday afternoon.

Price. Under those orcuments signed it. I know nothing of Price; had no dealings with him whatevar, and did not, and never have, approved his course. I condemned many of the acts of my brother as Mayor—but as he received the hindorsement of several of the honest men of Maridian for re-appointment as Mayor. I supposed they were disposed to assume the responsibility. I hope an imparital committee will investigate the origin of the fire. I fear not the consequences. I have resided in Meridian for several years, have always acted honest and upright in all of my dealings and transactions. In conclusion, I sak for Justice. I expect nothing more. If I have erred, it was not done to promote strife or contemtion, but was always desirons of seeing peace and harmony in coar city.
